JURY MUST CONDEMN IT

So Decides Judge Waddill as to Shafer Building.

GOVERNMENT SUSTAINED

Federal Authorities Wished This Method to Be Adopted to Acquire New Property for the Postoffice and Other Purposes.

Hon. Edmund Waddill, Jr., judge, sitting in the United States Circuit Court, handed down yesterday the decision of the court on the propositions raised by counsel for several of the tenants of the Shafer building, as to the procedure to be followed in these proceedings.

There were three questions raised, the first two being entirely technical, and were decided in favor of the government; and the third one being "as to whether a were decided in favor of the government; and the third one being "as to whether a condemnation should be had by the appointment of five disinterested fresholders, as provided by the Virginia statute, or the impanelling of a jury at the bar of the court." As before stated, the first two points were technical and not of public interest; but as to the third point, the Court in its opinion says:

"As te the third proposition, the statute of Virginia provides for the selection of a commission, to consist of five disinterested freeholders, any three of whom may act, who shall meet upon the prensies, first having taken an oath for the faithful discharge of their duties, for the purpose of ascertabling a just company sation for the land to be taken. The Federal statute, under which the present condemnation is being had provides that in the Circuit and District Courts of the United States in which condemnation proceedings are inaugurated by the government, conformity shall be had, as near as may be to the practice, pleadings, forms and modes of procedure existing in like cases in the courts of the State in which the condemnation is to be had. As an criginal proposition, the court's inclination would be to appoint a commission, in acwould be to appoint a commission, in ac-cordance with the method prescribed by cordance with the method prescribed by the State statute relating to condemnation, believing that method to be more fixed from the leaves of damages than the trial of such an issue by jury; but the Supreme Court of the United States has recently had under review this entire subject, in the case of Chappell ws. the United States, 160 U. S., 499, 513; and it seems to have passed directly on this question, and the fair interpretation of that decision is, that ancitions of this class are in effect actions at law, and in which, for the determination of questions of fact arising therein, an ordinary jury is contemplated, as provided by the statutes of the United States.

"In the light of this decision, the Court

"In the light of this decision, the Court

"In the light of this decision, the Court does not see its way clear, in a case like the present one, in which the government is asking for, and a part of the defendants assent to, a trial by jury, to deny this motion; and the request will accordingly be granted, and a jury impanelled at the bar of the court.
"Richmond, Va., Feb. 10, 1963."
The following is the list of the special jury directed to be summoned by the court in the condemnation proceedings, viz: T. C. Williams, T. William Pemberton, Gustavus Milhiser, T. H. Ellett, Henry M. Cannon, S. W. Travers, James D. Paton, Ashton Starke, Warner L. Fleming, James B. Pace, Junius B. Mosby, Y. M. Fourqurean, E. P. Murphy, Arthur B. Clarke, G. Watt Taylor, L. Z. Morriss, Clay Drewry, W. H. Soot, Jonas Marcuse, J. S. Moore.

BOSTOCK'S GORILLA Y W

His First Appearance Before the Public.

Wonderful Zoological Curiosity. The palace of glass, made for the repoid, ape man of Africa, has at last been completed. It had been concepted, deco-rated and fitted up by Mr. C. P. Smith, the electrical decorator, of No. 708 East Marshall Street, of this city, and reflects Marshall Street, of this city, and reflects great credit on both him and the mangement. It comprises two apartments, a basement and an upstairs parlor, 'The basement is fitted up with a bedsiged and the usual appointments, with electric heater, bunch lights, and electrical stove for the preparation of the little beast's food. The wery air that he breathes will pass through a special sterilizer, the same as is attached to incubators for finy human children. A negro nurse is an attendant on him, and a competent physician, skilled in infantile diseases, will devote his attention to him. His physician, skilled in Infantile diseases, will devote his attention to him. His food at present consists of grapes, plantains, bananas and bread, a little succulept mutton chop, and extract of meat is given him at intervals, with minute doses of whiskey and honey to relieve his chest affection.

His regular hours for appearing on public exhibition will be at 3:30 in the afternoon and 0 at night.

LETTER FROM TURPIN

Tells Justice John of a Dream He Had the Other Night.

the Other Night.

Willie Turpin, the negre who was shot several months ago by Policeman Krafy in the effort to capture him as a fugitive from Sallebury, Md., where he was wanted for shooting a railroad man, wrote this letter to Justice Crutchfield.—I though! I would write, you these few lines to let you hear from me. I am feeling about the same as I was when I left Richmond. I was really disgusted at your Pension Board for refusing to allow me a pension after I was shot down on the field of battle by one of your chief scouts, Mr. Franklin Kraft. Your Honor, I had a dream about you last night. I dreampt you was sitting in the kingdom and had Mr. Gibson and Wrenn seperating the good from the bad, and I was sorry I didn't see seargent Thomas and the reporters there, and Clerk White inst did make his escape, along with Mr. Gibbons. Your Honor, you muss put a little extra tax on the sinners and send it to me. From one of your old boys, WILLIE TURPIN.

SMALL DOCTOR'S BILLS.

Scientific Feeding the Way to Reduce Them.

Them.

A little science in the selection of food leads to good health and smaller doctor's bills. Ill health not only cuts down the carnings, but increases the cost of living, too. How many men and women would like to save the biggest part of what they now pay out for sickness yearly? As most allments come from improper feeding it stands to reason you won't need the doctor so often if you leed yourself and familis right and the doctor would be pleased as well.
